APPENDIX II
Seminar Speakers 1998-1999

LOUISE KELLOGG
UC Davis
"Long-lived Chemically Distinct Reservoirs in the Lower Mantle"
Tuesday, August 25, 1998

RAYMOND JEANLOZ
UC Berkeley
Department of Geology and Geophysics
"CMB?"
Tuesday, September 1, 1998

LARS BILDSTEN
UC Berkeley
Departments of Physics and Astronomy
"Tsunamis in Neutron Star Oceans: the Possibility of Neutron Star Oceanography with X-Ray Observations"
Tuesday, September 8, 1998

ROGER BILHAM
University of Colorado, Boulder
"Indo-Asian Collision Processes—the Dark Side of Himalayan Geodesy"
Tuesday, September 15, 1998

SUSAN OWEN
UC Berkeley
"Studying Faults and Rifts on Kilauea Volcano with GPS"
Tuesday, September 22, 1998

DAVID HILL
USGS Menlo Park
"The Continuing Saga of a Restless Caldera, Long Valley, California"
Tuesday, September 29, 1998

JASCHA POLET
Caltech
"Shallow Subduction Zone Earthquakes and Their Tsunamigenic Potential"
Monday, October 5, 1998

GILES PELTZER
Jet Propulsion Laboratory
"Crustal Deformation Studies in Southern California Using SAR Interferometry"
Tuesday, October 13, 1998

CHUCK WICKS
USGS Menlo Park
"Migration of Deformation within Yellowstone Caldera Inferred from Satellite Radar Interferometry"
Tuesday, October 27, 1998

STEPHEN ZATMAN
UC Berkeley
Department of Geology and Geophysics
"Rapid Happenings at the Centre of the Earth: Results from High Frequency Geomagnetism"
Tuesday, November 3, 1998

JOHN CASTLE
University of Washington
"Mantle Scattering: Incorporating Seismic Tomography and Surface Tectonics"
Tuesday, November 10, 1998

HEINER IGEL
Institute of Theoretical Geophysics,
University of Cambridge
"Numerical Methods in Global Seismology"
Tuesday, November 17, 1998

ED GARNERO
UC Berkeley
Berkeley Seismological Laboratory
"Seismic Imaging of the Deep Mantle"
Tuesday, November 24, 1998

JACK BOATWRIGHT
UCGS Menlo Park
"Seismic Intensity and Ground Motion"
Tuesday, January 19, 1999

BOB NADEAU
UC Berkeley
Berkeley Seismological Laboratory
"More Radical Ideology out of Berkeley or a Vast Right-Wing Conspiracy?: A New View of the Dynamics and Structure of Earthquake Faults from Similar and Repeating Earthquakes in California"
Tuesday, January 26, 1999
